

Robyn M. McKibbin Named Partner at Stone Cha & Dean LLP

Woodland Hills, California-based Stone Cha & Dean LLP is pleased to name Robyn M. McKibbin as a partner in its Employment Law practice group.

Woodland Hills, California, March 11, 2013 - Robyn is a civil litigator and employment counselor with 15 years' experience representing both corporate and individual clients with primary emphasis on employment law matters. She handles matters involving discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and wage and hour issues in state, federal and appellate levels.

She also represents clients before administrative agencies such as the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Robyn offers preventive HR counseling including personnel manuals, internal policies and forms, and also prepares employment, confidentiality, separation, and severance agreements as well.

"I've worked with Robyn for many years," says Kristi Dean, Managing Partner, "and her employment law expertise is a tremendous asset to our clients and to the firm as a whole. She is an outstanding lawyer and we are delighted to have her as our partner."

Robyn graduated from George Mason University and received her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law.

Stone Cha & Dean LLP is committed to delivering high quality legal services, promptly and cost-effectively, for our clients' business law, litigation, and transactional needs.

Contact:

Kristi Dean

kdean@scdlawllp.com

21550 Oxnard Street | Main Plaza | Suite 200

Woodland Hills | CA | 91367

T: 818/999-2232 | F: 818/999-2269

www.scdlawllp.com

###